This is the FreeDesk business plan. The financial section is not yet complete. We need input from Brian about projected sales for 2003.

WHAT IS AN APPLINK?

When you click on the "Open AppLink" button, below, a signed (meaning no virus danger) client Java program will download itself. The document will then appear inside an application window. You do not need any programs on your computer. You will need fire-wall port 3144-open. For further technical details, click on Technical Requirements.

FREEDESK NONDISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

You agree as a condition of viewing this document that you will not disclose any of its contents to any third party. You agree to not transmit this AppLink URL to any third party.

This does not apply to knowledge known to you prior to this time.
